About Us

The Michael Legend Hope and Relief Initiative MLHARI is the humanitarian arm of The Arm of Hope. There are two major categories of individuals associated with us. They are Volunteers and Members.

Members:

Our Members are formal and long-term participants in the Organization. Members have specific rights and responsibilities, which include voting in organizational decisions, and holding leadership positions.

Roles and Benefits of Membership:

- Committed to the organization's mission and values.
- Members can be written a recommendation letter by the Headquarters when the need arises.
- May hold leadership positions or take on specific roles.
- Attends regular meetings and events.
- Contribute to the advancement of every mission in (prayers, going for missions, financial donations, moral support, relief materials etc).
- All Members have training, mentorship, and career opportunities with the Organization

Volunteers:

These are individuals who offer their time, skills, and efforts on a voluntary basis to support the Organization's work. Volunteers have varying levels of involvement, from occasional participation in specific projects to more regular commitments.

As a Volunteer, you do not typically have the formal rights and responsibilities associated with Membership, such as voting or decision-making authority. However, a Volunteer has the opportunity at any point in time to graduate to becoming a Member by fulfilling our Membership Requirements.

Roles and Benefits of Volunteerism:

- Committed to the organization's mission and values.
- Contribute to the advancement of every mission in (prayers, going for missions, financial donations, moral support, relief materials etc.
- May participate in decision-making processes.
- Volunteers have the privilege to see how the Organization's work by enjoying strategic Mentorship opportunities.
- As a Volunteer, you have the choice of flexibility: Volunteers can choose when and how much time they want to commit, making it easier to balance with other commitments.
- Volunteers often have fewer administrative or organizational responsibilities unlike Members, allowing them to focus on hands-on work.

Please Note: Once an individual fills and submits this form, if their application is approved, they become a Volunteer of the Organization.

Steps to becoming a Member of the Institution

To become a member, you are required to fulfill the First Order of the Institution. The First Order is a spiritual obligation for all intending members. It entails getting up within the hours of 12:00am – 3:00am to pray in the Spirit for a minimum of 45 minutes daily for seven (7) days. A separate form will be given to this effect to register day and time of this obligation.

Please contact the Membership Department for more details on how to comply with The First Order.

- Every Member/Volunteer will receive an official identity card from the Institution.
- Every Member is required to join at least one department within the Institution.
